

Volunteering – the lifeblood of many charities – challenges and opportunities!

Workshop - Wednesday 25th April 2018

This briefing & workshop will help you to:

- Understand what the key challenges are in finding and keeping good volunteers
- Identify new opportunities and volunteer strategies
- Benefit from new approaches
- Explore the use and benefits of corporate volunteers
- Learn from other charities

Venue - Singleton Environment Centre, Ashford, Kent. Wesley School Road, Kent. TN23 5LW

Programme

9.30 coffee and networking

- Alpha Charity Consulting – Why do people volunteer? How to embrace corporate volunteering opportunities.
- Millennial volunteers and trustees –Adam Henderson, The Millennial Mindset.
- Changing Citizen Behaviour –Roger Williams, Intelligent Linking
- Should you treat volunteers differently to employees? Jackie Brooker, Dakota Blue HR Consulting
- Interactive learning session: A group session to share experiences and learn from others.
- Launch of the ACC Volunteer Hub

12.30 Close of workshop

Booking information:

Phone: Phil Auden 07949 780446

Email: philauden@alphacharityconsulting.co.uk

Web site: www.alphacharityconsulting.co.uk/workshops

Cost: £15 per delegate